ABOUT CGSRHR

The Centre of Excellence for Gender, Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights (CGSRHR) was established in 2006 at the BRAC James P Grant School of Public Health, BRAC University with the goal of bringing Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights (SRHR) into human rights in Bangladesh. The Centre has since diversified into larger thematic areas of gender empowerment and SRHR, focusing on research activities, policy advocacy and training exercises for students and practitioners.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The goal of this course is to push the boundaries for realising SRHR in Bangladesh, through conceptual clarity on gender, sexuality, reproductive health and rights. This course will give an unique opportunity to a comprehensive understanding of and how to respond to, SRHR issues, which includes addressing gender and sexuality.

The course therefore aims to:

- Build comprehensive understanding among participants on SRHR issues.
- Stimulate critical thinking and reflection on sexuality, gender and SRHR.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Individuals who are working as Development professionals, Researchers, Academicians, Students, or individuals interested in issues related to Public health, Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights, Sexuality, Masculinity, Violence and Gender are encouraged to apply.

SCHOLARSHIPS

A limited number of scholarships (full and partial) from CGSRHR are available on a need basis. Please note that the scholarship process is competitive.
